Introduction

Dear colleagues, The Macedonian Geological Society -Skopje 1952, with particular honor and pleasure Informs you that the preparations for the Fourth Macedonian Geological Congress are underway. At the Congress, the newest scientific and expert achievements in all fields of geology in Macedonia and the region will be promoted. We are especially happy that a large number of authors from abroad have already confirmed their participation, making our Congress international once again.

Paper submission

The authors should send their papers by 31st May, 2020, to the e-mail address: contact@mgd-geolog.mk. The papers should be prepared according to the manual for preparation of papers for the journal “Geologica Macedonica”.

Registration fee

The registration fee for participation on the Congress is 50 €. Payment is possible only through a bank account, and the details will be published in the Third Circular.

Venue and accomodation

The Fourth Macedonian Geological Congress will be held in hotel Sileks in Ohrid, from 02-04 October 2020. The participants and all interested can send mail to info@hotelsileks.mk or call ++389 46 277 300 for additional information.

Presentation and publication of the papers

The papers can be presented as a Power Point presentation or as a poster. The authors should state the type of presentation in the application form. A collection of papers will be published from the Congress, as a special issue of the journal “Geologica Macedonica”. Only the papers accepted by the Scientific Board will be published in the collection of papers.

Information for the participants

Official language of the congress will be Macedonian, and the papers from abroad will be presented in English. The authors are personally responsible for the contents, results that are being presented, the quality of the technical preparation and linguistic editing of the text. The papers will be reviewed by the Scientific Board.
