Annual Scientific Conference of the BGS
with international participation

“GEOSCIENCES 2007”

Sofia, Bulgaria
December 13 – 14, 2007

DEDICATED TO THE INTERNATIONAL YEAR OF THE PLANET EARTH

INVITATION

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Bulgarian Geological Society (BGS), the Organizing Committee of the Annual Scientific Conference “GEOSCIENCES 2007” has the pleasure to invite you to participate in the work of the conference which will be held on December 13-14, 2007 in the House of Science and Technology (Sofia, Bulgaria).

Annual Conferences of BGS won recognition as the most important scientific events in Bulgaria in the field of geology. The Annual 2007 Conference is not exception. The Program of “GEOSCIENCES 2007” covers wide spectrum of geological activities pointing out the actual problems and perspective sphere of implementation of the scientific knowledge. The Conference gives possibilities for a large announcement of the results of scientific institutes, universities, departments, laboratories, companies and other organizations among the professional audience. We kindly invite also companies and institutions interested to advertise their activities to join “GEOSCIENCE 2007”.

Abstracts of scientific reports will be published in the Proceedings of the Conference. Besides, the participants of the Conference will have a preference to publish full texts of their reports in regular issue of the Review of the Bulgarian Geological Society.

We hope that your active participation will contribute to successful realization of the Annual 2007 Scientific Conference. Actual information on the Conference you can find on the website of BGS – www.bgd.bg
